

August 27, 2014

Written by Randy Simpson
Thursday, 28 August 2014 01:21 -

Hey folks, I trust you are doing well. It has been one very busy summer for me, and I am so glad the Lord is good. Here are some updates, and bits of news for you. I have passed all my tests for my school bus CDL, and starting next week, I will begin my part-time job driving school bus for Northern School District. I think the kids will really enjoy my singing to them on the way to school, don't you? LOL Thank you for continually praying for me and my ministry.

I am continuing to travel and sing gospel music because of your prayers. Please be reminded of my Labor Day Weekend Gospel Sing taking place this Friday through Monday at the King's Campground in Dillsburg, PA.

Many artists are scheduled to be with me over the 4 days, such as, Danny Figgins, The Richters, Victory Express, The Millers, Mercy's Vessel,

Joe Tomlinson, and many more. I hope to see you there !!!

Randy